INSTRUCTIONS TO JUNIOR SUPERVISORS

1. Supervisors shall be in attendance at the place of the examination at least thirty minutes before the setting of the first paper and fifteen minutes before the setting of each subsequent paper.
2. In allocating question papers, junior supervisors shall begin to hand over the papers from the first candidate in the respective blocks.
3. When a paper is divided into two sections, two answer-books, one for each section shall be supplied to the candidates, and only one when it is not so divided. Additional answer-books shall be given only when the book previously given for the whole paper or section is written in. Any number of additional answer-books may be given according to the needs of the candidates. Supervisors shall take particular care to collect all answer-books whether used or unused, and shall see that no candidate is allowed to retain with him any blank answer-book after the ringing bell is rung.
4. When the examination is going on, junior supervisors shall carefully look after the block of candidates of which they are assigned.
5. Supervisors shall use the utmost vigilance to prevent copying or communication by candidates with one another or with any other person.

6. Junior Supervisors

- (i) shall not engage in conversations with candidates during the examination and they shall not read what candidates write.
 - (ii) shall not give any hint of explanation connected with the question set.
 - (iii) shall not do any private or office work during the hours of supervision nor shall they, on any account, admit outsiders to the place of the examination.
 - (iv) shall not keep with them any spare copies of question papers after they have been distributed to the candidates.
 - (v) shall see that no copy of the question paper is given to any one who is not a candidate appearing for the examination.
 - (vi) shall see that all the candidates are given the proper question papers in accordance with the subjects they have offered for the examination.
 - (vii) shall not allow any exchange of writing materials, stationery, mathematical instruments, etc., when the examination is in progress.
7. One hour after the setting of the question paper, junior supervisors shall go round the hall they are in charge of and see that the candidates have made all the entries correctly on the first page of each answer-book supplied and have written correctly and legibly their name, number, the subject and the number of the section of each answer-book. Whenever any additional time is supplied to candidates they shall also see that all the entries on the first page are properly and correctly made.
8. Junior Supervisors should not allow the candidates to change their seats. They should assure themselves that the candidates write their seat numbers legibly and accurately on the answer-books are supplied to candidates they shall also see that all the entries on the answer-books and the supplements, for, careless writing of wrong seat numbers result in unnecessary complications leading to assigning marks to different seat numbers.
- The Junior Supervisors may refer to list of the names of candidates if they have any doubt as to the difficulty of the identity of the candidates.
9. They shall see that no candidate in their block leaves the examination hall without giving back his answer-book or answer-books, as the case may be, whether blank or written in.
 10. Supervisors shall note down the number of blank candidates in their given up their answer-books before the ringing of the warning bell at the end of examination.
 11. Candidates who give up their answer-books before the ringing of the warning bell shall be permitted to leave the hall. But after that, no candidate shall be allowed to leave till the end of examination.
 12. Junior Supervisors should see that answer-books, original as well as supplements, that they supply to the candidates for writing answers are initialed and sealed by them in the proper way.
 13. At the ringing of the final bell, the junior supervisors shall go to each candidate and collect from him all his answer-books. In doing so the junior supervisors shall begin collecting the answer-books from the last seat in their blocks and when the collection work is done shall arrange them in two bundles according to sections and in their serial order. They shall deliver the bundles personally together with their reports, to the Senior Supervisors, and shall not leave the place of the examination without their permission.
